IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Lynchburg.—Booker's Tobacco Warehouse, which was burned last July when the industrial exposition was destroyed, has been rebuilt and reopened for the auction sale of tobacco.

* * *

Newport News.—P. W. Darlitz, Virginian oyster "farmer" of Hampton, is experimenting with the planting of oysters in Mobjack Bay, something which heretofore has never been attempted in the history of Virginia oystering.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Sixty-five births were reported here during October, a decrease of ten when compared with October, 1923. During the same period there was no typhoid fever reported in the city, whereas in October a year ago there were two cases.

* * *

Covington.—Owing to ill health, President Frank L. Ritchart, of the People's Bank, of Covington tendered his resignation and A. L. Noel was elected by the directors to succeed to continue on the board of directors, it was announced.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Twenty-five Rockingham 4-H Club members have been awarded efficiency medals by the State Extension Division for various demonstrations given this year in State, county and sectional contests, County Agent Charles W. Waingler was advised. This is the largest number of any county in the State.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Indignant citizens of the Berea neighborhood in Stafford county are on the lookout for a 16-year-old boy by the name of Patrick O'Brien, who disappeared from the home of R. S. Brown, taking with him the family savings of $250 in cash, which were kept secreted in the house.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Three young men, John Pitts, Arthur Beasley and Russell Whitaker, all of Caroline county, were fined $50 and costs each at the county seat for a brutal and cruel act. They testified that on November 9 they poured gasoline upon and set fire to a bound puppy, owned by John Ayers, of the same county.

* * *

Charlottesville. — Gifts from two alumni of the University of Virginia will be valuable additions to the University library. One is from W. Gordon McCabe, who has offered the university a part of his father's library, and the other is from Dr. Frank P. Brent, of Christ Church, Middlesex county, who has given a first edition of a book by Thomas Jefferson.

* * *

Norfolk.—Personal investigation of liquor conditions here will be made by individual members of the special grand jury named by Judge Sargeant to investigate charges by the Rev. David Hepburn, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League, that the police department is "shot through and through with graft and corruption," in addition to the investigation now being made by the jury as a body.

* * *

Winchester.—Hote A. Giffin, 34, fireman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's crack flier, the Capitol Limited, the only person killed in the train wreck a few days ago at Weverton, Md., was to have been married during the approaching Christmas holidays, it was learned from relatives here. The name of his intended bride was not disclosed by them. He was a native of Frederick county.

* * *

Danville.—Ed Talley, who resides at Stokesland, want rabbit hunting. His hounds trailed a rabbit into a hole in a field not far from the residence and Talley believing he could reach the rabbit, knelt down and stretched his arm into the recesses of the hole. He had hardly done so when he felt a sharp sting of pain and withdrawing his hand he found blood emanating from two small punctures of the middle finger. Others who came up attacked the hole with a hoe and old axed it sufficiently to reveal not only the rabbit but also a moccasin snake five feet in length and of considerable girth. Both animals were despatched and a call was sent to Dr. W. B. Sayer, of this city, who found Talley's finger considerably inflamed. Treatment was accorded and there is reason to believe that the snake bite will not be fatal.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Miss Ella Robertson, 1016 Wise street, a member of Memorial Methodist Church, has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to take a course at the Scarritt Training School, preparatory for work in the Belgian Congo region as a missionary under auspices of the Southern Methodist Board. Miss Robertson is a graduate nurse from the Jefferson Hospital, Roanoke. She will be with Miss Cora Armstrong, also of Lynchburg, in the school. Miss Armstrong also being under preparation for similar work.

Lynchburg.—The Tobacco Growers' Co-Operative Association has filed injunction suits in the Circuit Court of Campbell county at Rustburg, seeking to enjoin Charles Carwile, W. M. Adams, A. G. Adams, Ray Carwile, Lacy Adams, W. P. McCraw and Robert Daniel from disposing of their tobacco crops in violation of their agreements to market through the cooperative association.

Sunnyton.—Virginia daily newspaper editors and directors of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce will gather in Richmond on November 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, for the purpose of planning ways and means for constructive co-operation in the development of Virginia between the press and the State Chamber.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—The Orange Milling Company's plant, in Orange county, including a 100-barrel-a-day four-making plant, together with a feed mill and mixing machinery, and all the land attached, brought $18,000 when sold at auction. The property was bought by A. Stuart Robertson, Virginius Shackelford, H. C. and A. B. Warren, of Orange. It is understood that the mill will be put into full operation.

* * *

Gordonsville.—That other and principal beloved each had killed the other is revealed in the improvement of the condition of Chief of Police Frank L. Allman here, and Layton Shiflett, whom the officer had ordered under arrest when Shiflett cut the chief so severely that fifteen stitches were necessary to save the officer's life. Shiflett, who was shot twice, was taken to a Charlottesville hospital for treatment. Both men are now recovering.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Five veterans of the Pike National Home at Bedford, who were victims of the poisoned cider November 10, have been discharged from the hospital at the home after having lost twenty-four hours; otherwise, it was stated at the home there has been no change in the situation. While several veterans are still seriously ill, the situation was characterized as practically unchanged, with most of the sick men doing well.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Five directors were elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Fredericksburg Fair Association, held in the Chamber of Commerce last Friday. Those elected to fill vacancies were: W. T. Peyton, Stafford; L. P. Graves, King George; R. R. Morrison, Spotsylvania; C. R. Howard and H. A. Whitbeck, Fredericksburg. President H. E. Sweetser presided over the meeting, and C. R. Howard acted as temporary secretary.

* * *

Danville.—A small hoard of gold and silver coins has been unearthed in Patrick county near Peters Creek, where representatives of a Winston-Salem marble yard while excavating a foundation for a monument in the burial ground of J. Y. Tatum came across the treasure. Some of the coins have been burnished, and the dates of the pieces range from 1776 to 1852. It is assumed they were buried during the Civil War for safekeeping. Work has been stopped and further excavations are being carefully made in the hope of discovering other relics.

* * *

Charlottesville.—Five of underwhelmed origin destroyed the contents of the home here of Thomas J. Michie, a twelve-room brick structure. The exact amount of the loss could not be estimated, but it was said to be covered by insurance. The Michie home adjoined on one side "Cornyns Hall," former residence of President Alderman of the university, and on the other the last home of "Parson" John H. Massey, so long a vital and stirring figure in the politics of Virginia. It was the home of J. Samuel McCue, who was convicted and executed for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Pansie Crawford McCue, in the bathroom on the second floor, fust twenty years ago. The McCue trial was one of the most celebrated criminal trials that ever occurred in Virginia.

* * *

Orange.—With the success of the Orange County Fair now a matter of the fair grounds, an interest has been created in utilizing the grounds, or a portion of the tract, for a community playground and park. The location, just adjacent to the corporate limits of the town, with comparatively little expense, can be converted into an ideal place for apparatus of all kinds, including swings, slides, and the like, with a swimming pool in prospect also. For the adults tennis courts are planned with benches and high-class movies for young and old. Edward V. Reeden, county farm agent, is enthusiastically behind the project and feels that with the co-operation of the Town Council and the Chamber of Commerce and the Woman's Club that the necessary funds can be provided.

* * *

Danville.—Two small children escaped probable fatal injuries by fire Saturday only through the heroic efforts of their mother, who found both children ablaze and screaming when she returned to the room in which she had left them momentarily. The injured boys are William Emerson, 4, and F. L. Emerson, 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Emerson, who live at Schoolfield. Mrs. Emerson was burned about the hands and arms in tearing burning clothing from both children. She finally smothered the flames.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for November 30

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:25-37.

GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.—Luke 10:27.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Good Neighbor.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Parable of the Good Samaritan.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Be a Good Neighbor.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Wise Neighbor Art 17.

I. How to Inherit Eternal Life (vv. 25-28).

1. The Lawyer's Question (v. 25). "Lawyer" here means one versed in religious law, the Scriptures—not lawyer in our modern sense of that term. It would more nearly correspond to a theological professor. The lawyer's object was to trap Jesus—to induce Him to take such a stand as would weaken His influence as a teacher. He expected Jesus to set fresh moral commandments which would conflict with or disparage the law.

2. Jesus' Question (v. 26). Though Jesus knew the motive of the lawyer He did not evade his question. He sent him to the law, the field which was familiar to him. He thus was robbed of his own weapon.

3. The Lawyer's Reply (v 27). He made an intelligent answer declaring that the entire content of the law was embraced in love to God and man. This expresses the whole of human duty.

4. Jesus' Reply (v. 28). This straightforward answer went to the heart of the lawyer. Perfect love to God and man is truly the way of life. No man has yet had he can have such love. His sinful condition precludes its possibility. Man's failure to measure up to this requirement is his condemnation. The lawyer keenly felt this thrust. He was defeated on his own grounds and convicted of guilt.

II. Who Is My Neighbor? (vv. 29-37).

1. The Lawyer's Question (v. 29). This question reveals the insincerity of the lawyer. Christ's answer had touched his conscience, and now he seeks to escape the difficulty by setting a captious question. Lawyer-like he sought to get off by raising a question as to the meaning of words.

2. Jesus' Answer (vv. 30-37). This more than answered the lawyer's question. In the parable of the Good Samaritan He makes clear who is a neighbor, and also what it means to be a neighbor, or what loving a neighbor means. Christ's answer had in it the Spirit of Christ can see their neighbors on every hand.

(2) What being a neighbor means. Our supreme concern should not be "Who is my neighbor?" but "Whose neighbor am I?" To be a neighbor is (a) to be on the lookout for those in need of our help (v. 33). (b) To have compassion on the needy (v. 33). Christ's compassion was aroused as He came into contact with those in need. Our sufferers in life are those who have His nature will be interested in suffering humanity. (c) To give to those in need (v. 34). Many are willing to give, but to help the poor and needy, but are unwilling to personally minister to them. Many times the personal touch is more important than the material aid. We should give ourselves as well as our money. (d) To bind up wounds (v. 34). (e) To set the helpless ones on our beasts while we walk (v. 34). This is proof that love is genuine. Christians will deny themselves in order to have something to give to those who have need. This kind of sympathy is greatly needed today. (f) To bring to the inn and take care of the unfortunate (v. 34). Genuine love does not leave its service incomplete. Much Christian service is unsmooth, helps and then leaves a man to take care of himself. (g) To give money (v. 35). It costs a good deal to be a neighbor. Love is the most expensive thing in the world. It cost God His only Son. It cost Christ His life. May we go and do likewise!

HIXBURG

Now that cold weather has arrived the order of business around here is killing hogs and preparing winter wood.

H. M. Marshall, W. A. Swan and E. F. Covington were in Appomattox last Monday.

Your correspondent while in Appomattox went through the new depot and having served the public through such for nearly twenty years, I must say that Appomattox has a station that would be a credit to a city of twenty-five thousand people.

The farmers' lime plant at Riverside, in which many of our Appomattox people invested, and through bad management was sold at auction last Monday was bought in by the farmers who felt interested and will be reorganized. This is said to be one of the best plants in the state turning out a product analyzing very high in calcium.

Quite a number of good farmers, who usually have corn for sale here will hardly have one much this season to carry them through and some may have to buy. There are now a few pigs here for sale.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. R. Gray, of West Virginia, were in for Thanksgiving and H. B. Swan, of Bluefield was also here for a short hunt and killed several rabbits.

Dabney and William Swan, of Prince Edward County and Miss Carwile, of Pamplin, were Sunday visitors in the home of C. R. McNutt, of Gladstone.

EVERGREEN

We realize that autumn is over and the cold winter days are with us.

The bazaar and oyster supper was quite a success at Evergreen last Saturday evening. We thank all who patronized it.

Miss Elsie Marks was the week-end guest of her parents near Oakville.

Miss Louise Marks of Oakville was the week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Farrar.

J. R. Lee is on the sick list. His friends hope to see him out soon.

Mrs. S. W. Farrar and children, of Church Roads, were week-end guests of home people here.

Louis Dickerson. who has been sick, has recovered, and his friends are glad to see him out again.

Edmund Cawthorn, of Brookneal, spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Bettie Cawthorn.

We are sorry to hear of the serious condition of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Blackwell's baby.

Otlie Inge, of Lynchburg, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Inge.

Miss Iris LeGrande, of Petersburg spent the week-end with her parents here.

Mrs. Willis Warren, of Roanoke visited friends here last week.

Hurtsville

Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of Lynchburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Drinkard last week.

Jesse Hurt and Miss Bessie Marshall were visitors at South Boston last week.

Mrs. Narl Jennings and son, George, spent the week-end with home people in Lynchburg.

Eli LeGrand.

Mrs. Hubbard, of Roanoke, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mattie Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs J. T. Southall, of Lynchburg, and Mrs. Lucy Connor, of Old C. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Coleman last week.

D. A. Connor, while hunting last week in this neighborhood, accidentally shot and killed his good bird dog.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Southall, D. A. Connor, Mrs. Lucy Connor and Mrs. P. W. Coleman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Allen, near Prospect last week.

Miss Otis Coleman has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. C. M. Eart, at Kenbridge, Va.

Mesdames Joel and P. W. Coleman and Ed McPhillips spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. East, at Kenbridge last Sunday.

Miss Cammie Anderson has returned home after attending the Teachers' Conference in Richmond.

Joel Watkins was in the neighborhood Friday hunting and spent the day with P. W. Coleman.

ROCKS NEWS

Thanksgiving passed off very quietly in this vicinity. Many of the men enjoyed hunting that night. A free entertainment was given by the school children and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Joe Cawthorn furnished delightful music between the acts.

The picnic at Rocks was very enjoyable in spite of the cold day. Rev. Burnett gave an interesting talk, using a pictorial chart drawn by Elijah Farrar, to illustrate his talk. The afternoon service was interestingly conducted by the Billy Sunday boys.

Mrs. Nora Meadow, daughter Elizabeth and son, Lewis, of Roanoke, were here for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. J. H. Ranson's sisters and families, of Cullen, were Thanksgiving guests in her home.

Aubrey Ranson is at home for a while.

Mrs. J. A. Garrett is reported better.

Oakville

Miss Marjorie Martin and Louis Bilbro were married on November 26th at the home of Mr. Lavender in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bridal party and relatives were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Martin on Saturday evening.

At the recent oyster supper given at Oakville High School $46.31 were the total receipts taken in at the door. The program was rendered by the 'Pep' Club. This club is, as its name suggests, composed of live, energetic boys and girls, who are willing to work for the interest of the school. This club, by selling candy has already bought pencil sharpeners for the school and it is planning to give a play during the session.

There are 78 pupils enrolled in the Oakville High School and a large percentage of these boys and girls are doing good work.

Since sending a letter to our county paper the Oakville Patrons have had the pleasure of having Prof. Crawley address them in connection with co-operation between patrons and teachers.

The vicinity adjoining Oakville is the scene of much successful hunting. Clarke Moore killed two fine turkeys and obedience to the law forbade him killing the third one on the same day.

Eddie Moore, from West Virginia, has been a recent visitor at the home of Burge Moore.

Misses Fannie and Elina Haskins, Mable Adams and Richard Harvey motored to Buckingham to spend the Thanksgiving holidays at Fountain Ridge, the home of relatives of the Misses Haskins.

For All the Family

"WE have used Black-Draught ever since we have had a family and that was shortly after 1874," says Mr. E. A. Branstetter, of St. James, Mo. "It is my first remedy when any of us gets sick. . . . We use Black-Draught for torpid liver and stomach complaints.

"When I get sluggish and don't feel so good, I take Black-Draught—and you have to show me that there is a better medicine in Missouri. I think it is fine for indigestion or for headache. It is a splendid family remedy. My wife uses it for any stomach ailment, indigestion and biliousness. We never let the house be without it if I know it. We also give it to the children for children's complaints, colds or fever."

Keep a package of Black-Draught in the house for all the family.

Your dealer will sell you a mammoth package, containing five of the regular-size packages. It's cheaper.
